IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

CHAMBER SUMMONS NO.835 OF 2002
IN
EXECUTION APPLICATION NO.610 OF 2001
IN
PUNE SPECIAL C.S.NO.14 OF 2000

D.v.Brahme and Sons Plaintiffs versus

Felis Leo Engg. Pvt.Ltd. & ors. Defendants

None present.

CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 20th June 2006

PC :

1. This Chamber Summons is taken out by the second defendant requesting this Court that sale of immovable and movable properties which have been attached vide warrant of attachment dated 7th January 2002 be postponed.

2. An ad-interim application was made but this Court has observed that the Chamber Summons to come up for hearing in due course.

3. The properties are attached in execution of a money decree which has been passed in a suit filed before Joint Civil Judge, Senior Division, Pune. Defendants 2 and 3 who have taken out this Chamber Summons, are not present when this Chamber Summons was called out nor is their advocate present.

4. Since no ad-interim relief is granted, in all probability, either the sale is concluded or the matter is otherwise settled. Either which way Chamber Summons has become infructuous because sale was scheduled when the Chamber Summons was taken out and postponement was sought only till 31st January 2003.

(S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.)